

Pakistan's Winter (JFM) 2017 Rainfall Progress

CDPC / Pakistan Meteorological Department

1st April, 2017

Highlights:

- During the winter (JFM) 2017, rainfall as a whole country, over Pakistan was recorded close to its normal value (Fig-1). For this period, rainfall accumulation was above normal over AJK, KPK & Punjab and below normal over Balochistan, Sindh & GB (Fig-2).
- For March 2017, below normal rainfall has been recorded all over the country (Fig-2).
- January 2017 rainfall over country was exceptionally above normal (Fig-3).
- In February 2017, the country experiences deficient rainfall (Fig-3).

Fig-1: Pakistan's cumulative rainfall (normal & actual)

Fig-2: Country & provinces rainfall distribution (Winter & March 2017)

Fig-3: Country & provinces rainfall distribution (January & February 2017)